

UNV VOLUNTEER TERMS OF REFERENCE

Preamble:

The United Nations Volunteers (UNV) programme is the UN organization that promotes volunteerism to support peace and development worldwide. Volunteerism can transform the pace and nature of development, and it benefits both society at large and the individual volunteer. UNV contributes to peace and development by advocating for volunteerism globally, encouraging partners to integrate volunteerism into development programming, and mobilizing volunteers.

In most cultures volunteerism is deeply embedded in long-established, ancient traditions of sharing and support within the communities. In this context, UNV volunteers take part in various forms of volunteerism and play a role in development and peace together with co-workers, host agencies and local communities.

In all assignments, UNV volunteers promote volunteerism through their action and conduct. Engaging in volunteer activity can effectively and positively enrich their understanding of local and social realities, as well as create a bridge between themselves and the people in their host community. This will make the time they spend as UNV volunteers even more rewarding and productive.

The Special Unit for South-South Cooperation (SU/SSC) was established by the United National General Assembly in 1978. Hosted in UNDP, its primary mandate is to promote, coordinate and support South-South and triangular cooperation on a Global and United Nations system-wide basis. Aware of the central role of knowledge-sharing for South-South cooperation, member states have requested that knowledge sharing should become a significant part of the SU/SSC agenda.

In a novel approach aimed at strengthening social and economic ties among developing nations and sharing knowledge and best practices, the Special Unit for South-South Cooperation (SU/SSC) within the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), committed to transform, consolidate and institutionalize its current efforts into an integrated and mutually reinforcing multilateral South-South cooperation support architecture. Through its Cooperation Framework 2009-2011 approved by the UNDP Executive Board, SU/SSC is building this architecture through three interlinked platforms:

1. The Global South-South Development Academy (GSSD ACADEMY): to enable development partners to systematically identify, document and catalogue development solutions for global validation and mutual learning;
2. The Global South-South Development Expo (GSSD EXPO): to enable development partners to showcase successful and scalable development solutions to the broader community for partnership building; and
3. The South-South Global Assets and Technology Exchange (SS-GATE): to enable development partners to list the most scalable solutions and technologies for partnership building, resource mobilization and actual transfer.

The GSSD ACADEMY is intended to create a practical, institutional and operational framework for South-South development and create a locus for partnership with relevant institutions, counterparts and stakeholders. The programmatic functions of the Centre will be in line with the Millennium Development Goals and the Brussels Programme of Action for the LDCs, contributing toward mutually beneficial partnerships providing regional cooperation and integration.
